

20. The method of claim 16 including proportionally allocating the total number of simulated advertisements to be served to the subgroups based on the number of impressions served to that subgroup.

21. The method of claim 16 including determining a target reach by limiting the users to a
5 selected demographic subgroup of the users.